6TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

He said to him, "See that you tell no one anything, but go, show yourself to the priest and offer for your cleansing what Moses prescribed; that will be proof for them." The man went away and began to publicize the whole matter. He spread the report abroad so that it was impossible for Jesus to enter a town openly.

Communion for the Homebound:

When we come together to pray at our Eucharistic liturgy, we do not forget the members of our community who are unable to be with us because of ill health. We remember them in our prayers, and we wish to include them in our Holy Communion. Members of our community bring the Blessed Sacrament to them to comfort them and to unite us in the Eucharist. We are not always aware of those who have this need. Please call the Parish Office to let us know if you or a member of your family would like to have Holy Communion brought to them. Then we can schedule a time for our ministers to visit and bring the Sacrament.

BRINGING CHRIST TO THE PRECINCT CAUCUS

Why should I go to my precinct caucus? Why should I venture into the realm of politics at all when it seems that American politics appeals to our base fears with 30-second sound bites on television, only affords election victories to those who are most powerful and with the most money, and offers false controversies that take the place of true civil discourse and any deeper understanding of the common good?

Shouldn't we stay out of this rather ugly business? Not according to Pope Francis who has said that "a good Catholic meddles in politics." Rather than staying home and lamenting the seeming downslide over time of where our politics has gone, we do well to recognize our Christian duty as faithful citizens and leave the results to God. One key to remember is to not get entirely focused on national or presidential politics, but instead remember the fundamental truth that political change starts in our local communities and in our state.

Civic engagement is part of the vocation of God's faithful. We remember Jesus in the Gospel of Matthew in Chapter 5 when he says that we are the "salt of the earth" and the "light of the world." We may not always experience being these two things at a precinct caucus or as we involve ourselves in other ways in the political process. We may hear ideas and proposals that reflect a deeply flawed understanding of the human person. But this is all the more reason why we should bring the light of truth and the good news into the public square when we can.

Our catechism reminds us in paragraph no. 2240 that it is every person's responsibility as far as possible, to promote the common good through participation in public life. Our being our brother's keeper does extend to a social concern that extends into the public arena where the lawmaking process can be impacted to affirm human dignity and foster the common good.

The Minnesota Catholic Conference, the legislative arm of the Catholic Bishops, is an important resource and leader in our efforts. While the conference promotes a respect for human life and dignity of the human person, especially the poor and most vulnerable, through its efforts it succeeded in passing the new child care tax credit that will benefit families who do the important work of raising children for the next generation.

Attend your precinct caucus on Tuesday, February 27th at 7:00 p.m. A precinct caucus is the first level of political participation that leads to the district convention, regional convention, and finally to the state convention where delegates vote on candidates to be endorsed and receive party support through election day. In choosing delegates, everyone votes on anyone wanting to be a delegate by first hearing what they have to say. The other part of the discussion involves making changes to the party platform through resolutions that are made at each level, advancing or not advancing along the way. For locations see <https://www.sos.state.mn.us/elections-voting/how-elections-work/precinct-caucuses/>.

Think about it. If Catholics came to the caucuses in great numbers, exercising their faithful citizenship, we would, little by little, have great influence in bringing forth the kingdom of Jesus to the world. Even a sustained effort for a few short years would cause candidates and parties to change in order that the common good be fostered for all Minnesotans.
