3RD SUNDAY OF LENT

Since the Passover of the Jews was near, Jesus went up to Jerusalem. He found in the temple area those who sold oxen, sheep, and doves, as well as the money changers seated there. He made a whip out of cords and drove them all out of the temple area. - Jn 2:13b-15a

Communion for the Homebound:

When we come together to pray at our Eucharistic liturgy, we do not forget the members of our community who are unable to be with us because of ill health. We remember them in our prayers, and we wish to include them in our Holy Communion. Members of our community bring the Blessed Sacrament to them to comfort them and to unite us in the Eucharist. We are not always aware of those who have this need. Please call the Parish Office to let us know if you or a member of your family would like to have Holy Communion brought to them. Then we can schedule a time for our ministers to visit and bring the Sacrament.

STEWARDSHIP UPDATE

“You shall not covet” is perhaps a difficult commandment to keep in our consumer-oriented society. But as Christian stewards, we know that we are the recipients and caretakers of God’s many gifts. May this understanding that all is gift help us be less resentful of the gifts of others.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

The Introductory Rites lead into the Liturgy of the Word which, together with the Liturgy of the Eucharist, are the two principal actions of the Mass. In the proclamation of both the Old and New Testament, God invites us to deepen our relationship with him. The Word of God recalls the mystery of Christ and our salvation. Through our active participation in hearing the Word of God, we receive the grace to become his messengers to the world through the witness of our lives. The Constitution of the Sacred Liturgy on the Second Vatican Council, no. 24 emphasizes the importance of God's Word in the liturgy—strongly endorsing the promotion of a warm and living love for Scripture. The General Instruction of the Roman Missal, no. 28, stresses that it is not subordinate to the Liturgy of the Eucharist, but rather that the two liturgies are so closely interconnected that they form one single act of worship.

The Liturgy of the Word follows a three-year cycle for Sunday readings and a two-year cycle for Weekday readings, which gives balance to the readings chosen. In the Liturgy of the Word, God reveals himself to us through the proclamation of his Holy Scriptures. We respond to his revelation and his challenge to follow his ways with attentive listening, song, prayer, and silence. It is for this reason that the Liturgy of the Word is considered a dialogue: God speaks and we respond. How are we to receive the Word of God at Mass? We must listen with reverence. While those with hearing impairments are invited to follow along in a missal, those of us who can hear are asked to listen intently. Pope St. John Paul II in his Apostolic Letter "On Keeping the Lord's Day Holy" emphasized the value of preparing for the Sunday liturgy ahead of time, reflecting beforehand on the Word of God that will be proclaimed so that we "may be more powerfully penetrated by it" (Dies Domini, no. 40). This preparation, our preparation before Mass, our attentive listening, and our reflection in periods of silence during Mass are intended to allow the Holy Spirit to speak to each of us.

It is often the case that we have heard the stories of Jesus and the parables he told many times before and that they are very familiar to us. Yet, these stories are not ordinary and do not cease to have impact upon us. They were the words and deeds of Jesus himself and the entire scriptures were inspired by the Holy Spirit. Thus, the proclamation of these readings has the power to bring about in us what we hear proclaimed. The Church has the conviction that "When the Sacred Scriptures are read in the Church, God himself is speaking to his people, and Christ, present in his own Word, is proclaiming the Gospel."

May the holy Word of God move our hearts and make us a faithful community of believers.

Father Tony

EUCHARISTIC MINISTERS OF HOLY COMMUNION TO THE HOMEBOUND

To serve as a Homebound Minister is a wonderful blessing and privilege. To bring the Holy Eucharist to those unable to attend Mass is a special gift.

We are in need of Eucharistic Ministers to the homebound. The time commitment is only 6 times per year. We go out after attending 8:00 a.m. Mass on Sundays and bring the Eucharist, along with a bulletin. We follow a short Communion Rite which is provided and that the residents are very familiar with.

If you are interested in serving in this rewarding ministry and would like more information please call Bill Van Hecke at (612) 812-8615 or the Parish Office.

ANNUNCIATION SUNDAY

Join us in praying a special novena March 16-24 in preparation for the Solemnity of the Annunciation. Let us follow the example of Mary and call upon her intercession to help us open our hearts to say “yes” to God! Copies of the novena can be picked up on the table in the back of the church.

PLEASE CONTRIBUTE ON GLOBAL SOLIDARITY SUNDAY

Next Saturday and Sunday, March 9th and 10th, we observe Global Solidarity Sunday with the theme “For God so loved the world...” (Jn 3:16). This theme invites everyone to reach out, around the world, to share the love of Jesus Christ with those who hunger and thirst for God’s mercy, love, and healing. There is a special need today as the Church in Central and Eastern Europe, on the GSS collections, is suffering the ravages of armed conflict. Global Solidarity Sunday also supports the spiritual and material needs of three other global priorities of the U.S. Catholic Bishops: Africa, Latin America, and humanitarian activities of Catholic Relief Services. We ask you to be as generous as possible in sharing God’s love for your brothers and sisters around the world. Thank you.
