Jesus answered them, "The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified. Amen, amen, I say to you, unless a grain of wheat falls to the ground and dies, it remains just a grain of wheat; but if it dies, it produces much fruit."

THE LITUGRY OF THE EUCHARIST

It is very important to understand that the Eucharistic Prayer, while prayed by the ordained priest in the person of Christ, is a prayer that belongs to all the baptized. The Church tells us that the Mass is the action of Christ the Priest and of his Body which is the Church. Most Catholics have been taught that during the Eucharistic Prayer the bread and wine are transformed into the Body and Blood of Christ. Yet, it is also true that the action to which all the baptized are called during the Eucharistic Prayer is more than to simply adore Christ who becomes present in our midst. In the celebration of the Mass, during the Eucharistic Prayer, not only does Christ become present, Body and Blood, soul and divinity under the forms of bread and wine, but Christ's saving action, his Passion, Death, and Resurrection are once again enacted and they are offered to the Father by Christ himself, through his priest, and by all present.

For this reason, the Eucharistic Prayer is always addressed to the Father. It is an act of worship offered to the Father, by Christ, in the Holy Spirit, just as it was at the moment of Christ's Passion, Death, and Resurrection. Pope St. John Paul II reminded us this in his Encyclical "Ecclesia de Eucharistia," no. 13 "Christ's gift of love and obedience to the point of giving his life is first and foremost a gift to the Father." It is this gift to the Father, this perfect sacrifice that becomes present in our midst at Mass.

This is a truth of enormous significance. The action of Christ offered once for all on Calvary becomes present again for us here and now, in our time and place. But what is more is that the presence of this saving action gives us the opportunity to become part of Christ's perfect offering, allowing us to participate in Christ's perfect worship of the Father. This is the action of Christ's Body, the Church, at Mass.

How, precisely do we participate in this offering? In union with the priest we offer Christ, but also ourselves! This is confirmed by the use of the pronoun "we" in the Eucharistic Prayer. It signifies that the people make the offering of their lives in union with Christ and in union with the priest who does likewise as he prays in the person of Christ. This makes the offering complete. It is only complete when we offer our lives with Christ as a pleasing offering to the Father. Christ's offering becomes truly our offering when, as we offer him, we offer ourselves, our lives, our individual efforts to do the will of the Father, however difficult this may be; our efforts to grow more like Christ, as well as our efforts as a community of believers to serve God's people and to spread God's Word. Most wonderful of all, although our offering is itself imperfect, joined with the offering of Christ it becomes part of his perfect praise and thanksgiving.

In the Memorial Acclamation of the Mass, our adoration of Christ reaches its climax and takes on three optional forms. Each one expresses adoration for Christ, gratitude for the redemption he won for us, and for his promise that he will come again. This, then, is a significant part of the action of the people during the Eucharistic Prayer. But to fully participate in this action and to fully understand it is to know that we are to pray it as our own, joining Christ's perfect offering to the Father and offering ourselves to the Father.

Father Tony

WE HAVE NEW TRUSTEES!

Welcome David Pohlen and Larry Schmid as our new trustees of The Church of the Guardian Angels! They are appointed as of January for an initial term of two years. Trustees involve themselves with the business that affects the parish overall or in more confidential matters. Together with the Pastor, the Archbishop, and the Vicar-General of the archdiocese, they form a Corporate Board that votes on matters that require such voting, such as spending a larger amount of money, selling property or renting property. May God bless their service in this capacity. They introduce themselves below:

Larry Schmid

I have been a member of Guardian Angels since my family moved to Chaska in 1961. I grew up three blocks west of the church and, with the exception of 6 years in the Air Force, I have lived in Chaska and have gone to this parish my entire life. I attended Guardian Angels Grade School and I am a graduate of Guardian Angels High School and the University of Saint Thomas. I am delighted and humbled to serve as a trustee. The parish has been a big part of my life and I want to do what I can to ensure it continues to be a big part of my life and a big part the lives of generations to come.

My wife Amy and I have been parishioners at Guardian Angels since 2008 after I retired from a 20-year career in the Air Force. I grew up in Eden Prairie and wanted to finish raising my family in the same type of Catholic environment I remembered as a kid. Being involved with the parish has been important to the whole family. Our two younger children finished primary school at Guardian Angels and all three of our kids went to Holy Family High School. My wife and I helped with the school Spring Fling fundraiser several years and I have been active as a lector and Eucharistic minister for years. One of my sons was a cantor and another coached the Guardian Angels Boys Basketball for 2 years. I am honored to be a trustee for the parish and hope to help the parish find ways to engage all members of the parish to be part of this wonderful community.

David Pohlen
