Beef and Sausage Thank you!

Many thanks to all of the men who have worked so hard, and joyfully this week to produce our famous beef and sausage dinner. On Wednesday, 4200 pounds of supplies were received at the GA gym kitchen and the guys worked on Wednesday, and Thursday, and Saturday and Sunday to set up and prepare the sausage and beef for us all to enjoy. Thank you to all who helped out in any way! God Bless you!

Gala tickets going fast!

We've now sold about 175 tickets for our GA Gala on February 23. Better get your ticket now while you still can! Only 200 will be sold! Archbishop Hebda will be joining us along with the 1950's band the White Sidewalls. It promises to be our best gala ever! I'm looking forward to it and I hope to see you there!

Polar Vortex Reflections

While we were in the middle of the "Polar Vortex" cold snap a couple of weeks ago everyone was talking (in not so happy terms) about the cold. Whether greeting a cashier in a store, or others out and about, everyone had a common point of reference: liberals, conservatives, young, old, different races, cultures, and nationalities, etc. We were all going through the same thing together and we were all in agreement and solidarity together. No one liked it and we all felt like we were in the same boat together. I must say that I do like that aspect of things when there's a big snow storm, or terrible cold, or some other kind of uncontrollable event which causes us all to be on the same page. We are so fractured as a society in so many different ways. It's kind of nice when, despite all of that, we all end up being on the same page, even if for just a brief time over something as mundane as the weather. Extreme weather has a way of doing that for us and bringing us together.

The polar vortex got me thinking of how God wants us all to be on the same page too. All of us united in love in His Kingdom; all of us drawn to the heart of His Divine love. All of us agreed on living the moral life, and agreed on what a moral life looks like. All of us striving to grow more in love with God and one another. All of us united against sin, Satan, and every kind of evil. All of us united by the Holy Spirit in a bond stronger than any of us could humanly create. I know, I'm kind of dreaming here, but that is in a sense what God does want for us. All of us united in love in His Son Jesus working to build his kingdom. Each time we celebrate the Mass, we pray for unity. The Eucharist is often referred to as the Sacrament of Unity. May our faithful participation at Sunday Mass unite us ever more with Christ Jesus, and one another as we celebrate and receive the Divine Love that unites us with God and one another. In Christ, Fr. Deziel

Faith Formation 2018-2019

Gospel Corner

February 10, 2019

LUKE 5:1-11

In Sunday's Gospel, Jesus speaks to the crowd from Simon Peter's boat. Then He encourages Simon Peter to cast his net into the water. Simon Peter questions why Jesus tells him to do this, but does as he is instructed – and catches many fish! Jesus tells him not to be afraid, and that from now on, he will be "catching men".

QUESTION OF THE WEEK: What did Jesus mean when He told Simon Peter, and the others, that they would be "catching men"?

FAMILY PRAYER: Jesus, You remind us that we shouldn't be afraid that you have a mission for us too. Help us to be open to sharing our faith with others.

Visit www.gospelweeklies.com/parents for more Gospel at Home activities.

EXPLORING THE SUNDAY GOSPEL (Adults):

What fears are people in the Church feeling today? Who or what has convinced you to follow Jesus? In what waters have you yet to fish for meaning and purpose in your life?

You assist in ministering to the imprisoned, evangelizing Catholic youth and college students, and strengthening families. You enable the sacraments to be provided to Catholics young and old alike, throughout the 12-county area and beyond. Two newly added ministry partners this year include Abria Pregnancy Resources and The Society of St. Vincent de Paul – Twin Cities. We invite you to learn more about each of the vital ministries supported by the Foundation, and to join us in transforming lives through the Gospel! Visit www.csafspm.org today.
