Mass Intentions: Mass intentions may be for the living and/or the departed, with a † designating in the bulletin a deceased person. There is a $10 suggested donation per Mass intention. Permission from the sick person or his/her family must be granted before a name's inclusion in these prayers. To schedule a Mass intention, call the Parish Office.

Baptism: Sacramental preparation is required for all parents. Godparents and Grandparents are also encouraged to attend. Baptismal prep sessions are given every other month and Baptism Masses are held once a month. Call the Parish Office to schedule a child for Baptism and the parents for baptismal prep.

Penance: Saturdays at Guardian Angels or by appointment.

Matrimony: Pre-registration required at least one year in advance; marriage preparation course is required. Initial contact: 952-227-4000, or e-mail: info@Gachaska.org.

Anointing: If you wish to receive an anointing please call the Parish Office: (952) 227-4000.

Communion for the Homebound: When we come together to pray at our Eucharistic liturgy, we do not forget the members of our community who are unable to be with us because of ill health. We remember them in our prayers, and we wish to include them in our Holy Communion. Members of our community bring the Blessed Sacrament to them to comfort them and to unite us in the Eucharist. We are not always aware of those who have this need. Please call the Parish Office to let us know if you or a member of your family would like to have Holy Communion brought to them. That way we can schedule a time for our ministers to visit and bring the Sacrament.

Hospital, Nursing Home, Homebound Visits: Churches are no longer notified by hospitals or nursing homes when a parishioner is admitted unless the family has requested it. If you or a family member are homebound, hospitalized or in a nursing home and would like a visit from a member of the ministry staff, please call the Parish Office.

An Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the most Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there, and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You.
Amen

FROM THE PASTOR

Coming Down off a Mountain

In my travels over the years, I have done some mountain hiking. It's a real blessing and thrill to get to the top. A few years ago, I hiked with my sister Maria to the top of Mount Mitchell, the highest peak in the Eastern United States. When we reached the top, it was just a thrill to be there and have accomplished the hike. There was a lookout that is rather breathtaking as we could see far away in all directions. There was a fresh breeze and spectacular panoramic views. It seemed like a strong experience of God, especially with my sister being there with me.

When we are granted the grace to sense a strong experience of God, it is as though we are seeing something similar to the Transfiguration that the disciples, Peter, James and John experienced. For a moment, they experienced, ahead of time, something that would constitute the happiness of paradise. God grants us these experiences sometimes, especially in anticipation of harsh trials.

These experiences can be our wedding day, our Ordination day, a day when we had a big family picnic, our Confirmation day, or the day we were hired for a job in the United States for the first time. After these days, we come down off the mountain and the divine face seems to turn away from us slightly, and we feel the full weight of our burdens, our trials, and our weariness. But this is the time for our self-giving, self-denial and sacrifices offered to the one who has offered us such great graces.

When we do make this offering, we let go of a future which we previously imagined only to embrace a new future – a future with God. The disciples never forgot that day. They were very afraid after our Lord's crucifixion, but they clung to hope because of what they experienced. They never forgot their experience of the Transfiguration even in their darkest hour. These moments of God reveal to us, too, that our hope will be rewarded with a sharing in God's future glory. God bless you all.

Sunday Readings

February 28th, 2021

Second Sunday of Lent

Reading 1

Gn 22:1-2, 9a, 10-13, 15-18

God put Abraham to the test. He called to him, "Abraham!" "Here I am!" he replied.

Then God said: "Take your son Isaac, your only one, whom you love, and go to the land of Moriah. There you shall offer him up as a holocaust on a height that I will point out to you."

When they came to the place of which God had told him, Abraham built an altar there and arranged the wood on it. Then he reached out and took the knife to slaughter his son. But the LORD's messenger called to him from heaven, "Abraham, Abraham!" "Here I am!" he answered. "Do not lay your hand on the boy," said the messenger. "Do not do the least thing to him.

I know now how devoted you are to God, since you did not withhold from me your own beloved son." As Abraham looked about, he spied a ram caught by its horns in the thicket. So he went and took the ram and offered it up as a holocaust in place of his son.

Again the LORD's messenger called to Abraham from heaven and said: "I swear by myself, declares the LORD, that because you acted as you did in not withholding from me your beloved son, I will bless you abundantly and make your descendants as countless as the stars of the sky and the sands of the seashore; your descendants shall take possession of the gates of their enemies, and in your descendants all the nations of the earth shall find blessing— all this because you obeyed my command."

Responsorial Psalm

116:10, 15, 16-17, 18-19

R. (116:9) I will walk before the Lord, in the land of the living.

I believed, even when I said, "I am greatly afflicted." Precious in the eyes of the LORD is the death of his faithful ones.

R. I will walk before the Lord, in the land of the living.

O LORD, I am your servant; I am your servant, the son of your handmaid; you have loosed my bonds. To you will I offer sacrifice of thanksgiving, and I will call upon the name of the LORD.

R. I will walk before the Lord, in the land of the living.

My vows to the LORD I will pay in the presence of all his people, In the courts of the house of the LORD, in your midst, O Jerusalem.

R. I will walk before the Lord, in the land of the living.

Reading 2

Rom 8:31b-34

Brothers and sisters: If God is for us, who can be against us? He who did not spare his own Son but handed him over for us all, how will he not also give us everything else along with him?

Who will bring a charge against God's chosen ones? It is God who acquits us, who will condemn? Christ Jesus it is who died—or, rather, was raised—who also is at the right hand of God, who indeed intercedes for us.

Gospel

Mk 9:2-10

Jesus took Peter, James, and John and led them up a high mountain apart by themselves. And he was transfigured before them, and his clothes became dazzling white, such as no fuller on earth could bleach them. Then Elijah appeared to them along with Moses, and they were conversing with Jesus. Then Peter said to Jesus in reply, "Rabbi, it is good that we are here! Let us make three tents: one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah." He hardly knew what to say, they were so terrified. Then a cloud came, casting a shadow over them; from the cloud came a voice, "This is my beloved Son. Listen to him." Suddenly, looking around, they no longer saw anyone but Jesus alone with them.

As they were coming down from the mountain, he charged them not to relate what they had seen to anyone, except when the Son of Man had risen from the dead. So they kept the matter to themselves, questioning what rising from the dead meant.

This week, the State of Minnesota launched a new COVID-19 Vaccine Connector service.

It allows all residents, regardless of age, to register easily, safely and securely to receive notifications regarding vaccine eligibility and availability.

No insurance or identification is needed, and signing up is free. All residents should register, regardless of whether they're currently eligible to get vaccinated.

When residents are eligible, the Vaccine Connector will:

- Alert them about their eligibility
- Connect them to resources to schedule an appointment; and
- Notify them if there are vaccination opportunities in their area

Residents can register online at www.mn.gov/vaccineconnector or via phone at (833) 431-2053. Translation services in all languages are available via phone.

We Can Do This!

GA Softball player...Heads up!

"A group of parishioners are wanted to form a Guardian Angels parish men's softball team to join the Wednesday night Chaska men's league at Lion's Park. If there is enough interest and the team can obtain a slot in the league, the team would play in 22 regular season games and two tournaments during the summer.

Deacon Cleveland has committed to buying a round for the whole team if the team finishes the season with a winning record.

The cost will be about $100 per player, unless we can find a sponsor. Please contact Rob Fafinski at fafinski.robteriii@fmjlaw.com soon if interested.

Skill level so far: men over 30 who played varsity level baseball but have gained weight in the intervening years. Men over 18 invited to join the team."

Lenten Lecture Series: St. Joseph, Model for Christians

Fridays through March 26, 7:30-8:30 p.m. at Church of Saint Agnes

The Church of Saint Agnes is hosting its annual Lenten Lecture Series on Friday evenings during Lent following 7 p.m. Stations of the Cross in the Upper Church. This year's theme — "St. Joseph, Model for Christians" — features presentations on six titles and roles of St. Joseph as model of the Christian life with a wonderful line-up of speakers as we celebrate the Year of St. Joseph. All talks are free and open to the public.

Synod at Home: Tips and Tools for Growing in Faith

New sessions posted weekly through March 18 -- Do it when it works for you!

During Lent, we often take on practices to deepen our faith lives and commitment to serving others. But once Easter comes, those practices can easily go to the wayside. How can we make those practices stick, to continue on a path toward holiness?

The Synod at Home series takes helpful videos, tips and tools for growing in faith, and pairs them with family-friendly activities based on four pillars: Prayer & Sacraments, Lifelong Learning, Generosity & Service, and Traditions & Fun. Individuals, couples and families will find their faith and relationships strengthened by Synod at Home.

Find weekly videos and materials at archspm.org/synod, sign up for emails (archspm.org/synod/updates) or access through the Synod app: text APP to 88202, then in the app search for Archdiocesan Synod.

Lecturas de Domingo

II Domingo de Cuaresma

Primera lectura

Gn 22, 1-2. 9-13. 15-18

En aquel tiempo, Dios le puso una prueba a Abraham y le dijo: “¡Abraham, Abraham!” El respondió: “Aquí estoy”. Y Dios le dijo: “Toma a tu hijo único, Isaac, a quien tanto amas; vete a la región de Moria y ofrécemelo en sacrificio, en el monte que yo te indicaré”.

Cuando llegaron al sitio que Dios le había señalado, Abraham levantó un altar y acomodó la leña. Luego ató a su hijo Isaac, lo puso sobre el altar, encima de la leña, y tomó el cuchillo para degollarlo.

Pero el ángel del Señor lo llamó desde el cielo y le dijo: “¡Abraham, Abraham!” Él contestó: “Aquí estoy”. El ángel le dijo: “No descargues la mano contra tu hijo, ni le hagas daño. Ya veo que temes a Dios, porque no le has negado a tu hijo único”.

Abraham levantó los ojos y vio un carnero, enredado por los cuernos en la maleza. Atrapó el carnero y lo ofreció en sacrificio en lugar de su hijo.

El ángel del Señor volvió a llamar a Abraham desde el cielo y le dijo: “Juro por mí mismo, dice el Señor, que por haber hecho esto y no haberme negado a tu hijo único, yo te bendeciré y multiplicaré tu descendencia como las estrellas del cielo y las arenas del mar. Tus descendientes conquistarán las ciudades enemigas. En tu descendencia serán bendecidos todos los pueblos de la tierra, porque obedeciste a mis palabras”.

Salmo Responsorial

Salmo 115, 10 y 15. 16-17. 18-19

R. (Sal 114, 9) Siempre confiaré en el Señor.

Aun abrumado de desgracias, siempre confié en Dios.

A los ojos del Señor es muy penoso que mueran sus amigos.

R. Siempre confiaré en el Señor.

De la muerte, Señor, me has librado, a mí, tu esclavo e hijo de tu esclava; te ofreceré con gratitud un sacrificio e invocaré tu nombre.

R. Siempre confiaré en el Señor.

Cumpliré mis promesas al Señor ante todo su pueblo, en medio de su templo santo, que está en Jerusalén.

R. Siempre confiaré en el Señor.

Segunda lectura

Rm 8, 31b-34

Hermanos: Si Dios está a nuestro favor, ¿quién estará en contra nuestra? El que no nos escatimó a su propio Hijo, sino que lo entregó por todos nosotros, ¿cómo no va a estar dispuesto a darnoslo todo, junto con su Hijo? ¿Quién acusará a los elegidos de Dios? Si Dios mismo es quien los perdona, ¿quién será el que los condene? ¿Acaso Jesucristo, que murió, resucitó y está a la derecha de Dios para interceder por nosotros?

Evangelio

Mc 9, 2-10

En aquel tiempo, Jesús tomó aparte a Pedro, a Santiago y a Juan, subió con ellos a un monte alto y se transfiguró en su presencia. Sus vestiduras se pusieron esplendorosamente blancas, con una blancura que nadie puede lograr sobre la tierra. Después se les aparecieron Elías y Moisés, conversando con Jesús.

Entonces Pedro le dijo a Jesús: “Maestro, ¿qué a gusto estamos aquí! Hagamos tres chozas, una para ti, otra para Moisés y otra para Elías”.

En realidad no sabía lo que decía, porque estaban asustados.

Se formó entonces una nube, que los cubrió con su sombra, y de esta nube salió una voz que decía: “Éste es mi Hijo amado; escúchenlo”.

En ese momento miraron alrededor y no vieron a nadie sino a Jesús, que estaba solo con ellos.

Cuando bajaban de la montaña, Jesús les mandó que no contaran a nadie lo que habían visto, hasta que el Hijo del hombre resucitara de entre los muertos. Ellos guardaron esto en secreto, pero discutían entre sí qué quería decir eso de ‘resucitar de entre los muertos’.
