Today's Readings

First Reading — After resting and taking nourishment twice, Elijah is strengthened to walk to the mountain of God, Horeb (1 Kings 19:4-8).

Psalm — Taste and see the goodness of the Lord (Psalm 34).

Second Reading — Be sealed by the Holy Spirit of God so as to be imitators of God and live in love (Ephesians 4:30 — 5:2).

Gospel — Jesus professes that he is the living bread and whoever eats this bread will live forever (John 6:41-51).

I AM THE LIVING BREAD
THAT CAME DOWN FROM HEAVEN;
WHOEVER EATS THIS BREAD
WILL LIVE FOREVER.

JOHN 6:51

Mass Intentions: Mass intentions may be for the living and/or the departed, with a † designating in the bulletin a deceased person. There is a $10 suggested donation per Mass intention. Permission from the sick person or his/her family must be granted before a name's inclusion in these prayers. To schedule a Mass intention, call the Parish Office.

Baptism: Our Baptism Belonging Class is required for all parents as a first step to Baptism of your child. We encouraged Godparents to attend. The Belonging Class is held once per month after the 10:00AM Mass. Please call the parish office to sign up for the class. Baptism dates will be given at the class. Special dates requested will be considered and accommodated depending on circumstances.

Reconciliation: Saturdays at 3:15—4:15 PM or by appointment.

Matrimony: Marriage preparation is required. Please call Father Tony VanderLoop, Pastor, at 952-679-9415 at least eight months in advance.

Anointing: If you wish to receive an anointing please call the Parish Office: (952) 227-4000.

Communion for the Homebound: When we come together to pray at our Eucharistic liturgy, we do not forget the members of our community who are unable to be with us because of ill health. We remember them in our prayers, and we wish to include them in our Holy Communion. Members of our community bring the Blessed Sacrament to them to comfort them and to unite us in the Eucharist. We are not always aware of those who have this need. Please call the Parish Office to let us know if you or a member of your family would like to have Holy Communion brought to them. That way we can schedule a time for our ministers to visit and bring the Sacrament.

Hospital, Nursing Home, Homebound Visits: Churches are no longer notified by hospitals or nursing homes when a parishioner is admitted unless the family has requested it. If you or a family member are homebound, hospitalized or in a nursing home and would like a visit from a member of the ministry staff, please call the Parish Office.

From The Pastor

Our Mass Strengthens Our Faith

The people of Galilee began to grumble about Jesus. They were so excited about The Miracle of the Loaves and Fishes that they had just witnessed. They wanted to make Jesus their king who would lead them to their longed-for liberation from Roman rule. But Jesus had another end in mind. He intended to give not merely bread for bodily hunger, but another kind of food. This food he called “bread from heaven”. Our daily bread is necessary, but it is not enough. We need food for our souls. When love is lacking, and a meaning in life and hope is as well, then we face spiritual ruin.

That was not the reason why the people were protesting in Capernaum. Rather, it was because Jesus said that he himself was this “bread from heaven”. He was “the bread of life”, he said. So Jesus was saying that he is the food that man needs in order to avoid withering away spiritually. How can any man say about himself that he is to some extent “spiritually necessary”? Many false teachers and dictators have come and gone, saying that they were bringers of salvation.

After all, “Jesus is just a man.” This was how they reacted. They did not want to be taken in by a self-appointed messenger of salvation. Jesus did not immediately condemn this skepticism and reticence. Rather, he said effectively, “Coming to me, believing in me, is possible only if God is leading someone to me in his heart.” Faith is a gift. Believing in Jesus is something that goes beyond our understanding. Yet it is not foolish and irrational. We have experienced belief in Jesus.

When we come to Mass together and let our voices rise to heaven, resoundingly, and when we come and prepare ourselves to receive whatever the Lord can reveal to us that day, and when we process forward as one to receive him, then we can say together, “Yes, that is really how it is. Jesus is indeed the bread of life!”

Saint Nicholas Meeting with the Archbishop Recap

We had a very positive meeting with the Archbishop on Thursday evening, July 29th with the parishioners of Saint Nicholas. The Archbishop thanked everyone for their considerable efforts in their discernment of the future of the parish. He then spoke of a future for the parish of serving and reaching out to those who live in new housing in the Carver area and have recently moved here. He also said that he could not imagine that the facility or church in Carver could eventually meet the needs of the people who live in the area. Many spoke of the need, if the parish is to be viable, for a consistent Sunday Mass and the Archbishop agreed that a Sunday Mass with a consistent priest is necessary. It was agreed that this Sunday Mass should be in addition to the Guardian Angels schedule and that a consistent visiting priest should help, me, Father Tony, to celebrate these Masses. It was also agreed that one daily Mass should be added as a replacement of a daily Mass at Guardian Angels. The Sunday Mass in Carver will very likely mean that our Sunday morning Mass schedule at Guardian Angels will change. I have already spoken to parishioners who attended our 10:00 AM Mass about this in a preliminary way. I will follow up with the parishioners of Saint Nicholas as the next step in the process to determine what our Sunday Mass schedule will be. I am very grateful for the Archbishop’s direction and visit as I am sure that those who attended are as well. I will continue to provide updates regarding our Mass schedule. Thank you.

Sunday Readings
August 8th, 2021
Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reading 1

1 Kgs 19:4-8

Elijah went a day's journey into the desert, until he came to a broom tree and sat beneath it. He prayed for death saying: "This is enough, O LORD! Take my life, for I am no better than my fathers." He lay down and fell asleep under the broom tree, but then an angel touched him and ordered him to get up and eat. Elijah looked and there at his head was a hearth cake and a jug of water. After he ate and drank, he lay down again, but the angel of the LORD came back a second time, touched him, and ordered, "Get up and eat, else the journey will be too long for you!" He got up, ate, and drank; then strengthened by that food, he walked forty days and forty nights to the mountain of God, Horeb.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 34:2-3, 4-5, 6-7, 8-9

Reading 2

Eph 4:30—5:2

Brothers and sisters: Do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, with which you were sealed for the day of redemption. All bitterness, fury, anger, shouting, and reviling must be removed from you, along with all malice. And be kind to one another, compassionate, forgiving one another as God has forgiven you in Christ. So be imitators of God, as beloved children, and live in love, as Christ loved us and handed himself over for us as a sacrificial offering to God for a fragrant aroma.

Gospel

Jn 6:41-51

The Jews murmured about Jesus because he said, "I am the bread that came down from heaven," and they said, "Is this not Jesus, the son of Joseph? Do we not know his father and mother? Then how can he say, 'I have come down from heaven'?" Jesus answered and said to them, "Stop murmuring among yourselves. No one can come to me unless the Father who sent me draw him, and I will raise him on the last day. It is written in the prophets: They shall all be taught by God. Everyone who listens to my Father and learns from him comes to me. Not that anyone has seen the Father except the one who is from God; he has seen the Father. Amen, amen, I say to you, whoever believes has eternal life. I am the bread of life. Your ancestors ate the manna in the desert, but they died; this is the bread that comes down from heaven so that one may eat it and not die. I am the living bread that came down from heaven; whoever eats this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world."

Prayer to Saint Michael the Archangel

Saint Michael the archangel, defend us in battle.

Be our protection against the wickedness
and snares of the Devil.

May God rebuke him, we humbly pray,
and do thou, O Prince of heavenly hosts,
by the power of God, cast into hell Satan,

and all the evil spirits,
who prowl about the world
seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

Reflections on the Mass by Bishop Cozzens

Dear Parishioners,

Please see <https://www.archspm.org/createdforcommunion/faqs/> to listen to audio reflections by Bishop Cozzens on Frequently Asked Questions about coming back to Mass in person. Additionally we provide some reflections here below:
What is the purpose of the Sunday obligation?

God gave his people the gift of the Sabbath (Saturday evening – Sunday), and in the Third Commandment instructed for our wellbeing that we keep it holy. For more on this, read five reasons why attending Mass weekly is essential to our faith at archspm.org/5reasons.

The dispensation is being lifted July 1, 2021. What does that mean?

The Sunday obligation to attend Mass in person was temporarily lifted during the pandemic out of concern for the safety of our most vulnerable. As the pandemic subsides, and public gathering restrictions and safety protocols are lifted, it is time to gather as the Body of Christ once again. Therefore, the bishops and diocesan administrators of the Minnesota Catholic Conference decided to reinstate the obligation to attend Mass on Sundays and Holy Days of Obligation beginning July 1, 2021.

Does this mean there will no longer be any dispensation from the Sunday and Holy Day obligations?

There remains reasons why a Catholic have a dispensation from the Sunday obligation, including when he or she is ill or serving as caretaker for one who cannot attend Mass. Find further examples in the letter from the Minnesota bishops about the return of the Sunday obligation (letter found at archspm.org/mccmassletter).

The faithful who do not attend Mass in person are asked to find a Mass on TV, the radio or online and make a Spiritual Communion (found at archspm.org/spiritualcommunion). Where that is not an option, it would be appropriate to pray the Liturgy of the Hours or the Rosary.

If I can work from home, why can't I worship from home?

It is powerful when we come together to pray. Jesus tells us, "For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them." (Matthew 18:20) Certainly, we can pray anywhere; the Lord invites us to relationship with Him. But there is something extra special about coming together in worship on the Sabbath (Saturday evening-Sunday) in the sanctuary. St. John Chrysostom said, "You cannot pray at home as at church, where there is a great multitude, where exclamations are cried out to God as from one great heart, and where there is something more: the union of minds, the accord of souls, the bond of charity, the prayers of the priests" (CCC 2179).

Why is receiving Communion vital to the Catholic faith?

Holy Communion is "the source and summit of the Christian Life." (CCC 1324). The Apostles and earliest Christian communities joined in community for celebration of the Eucharist. In the Acts of the Apostles, we read, "They devoted themselves to the teaching of the apostles and to the communal life, to the breaking of the bread and to the prayers" (Acts 2:42). St. Paul also refers to the celebration of communion, writing, "The cup of blessing that we bless, is it not a participation in the blood of Christ? The bread that we break, is it not a participation in the body of Christ?" (1 Corinthians 10:16).

Jesus chose such a moment to reveal his identity soon after the resurrection, following his journey alongside two travelers on the road to Emmaus: "And it happened that, while he was with them at table, he took bread, said the blessing, broke it, and gave it to them. With that their eyes were opened and they recognized him, but he vanished from their sight... Then the two recounted what had taken place on the way and how he was made known to them in the breaking of the bread" (Luke 24: 30-31, 35).

How are parishes keeping us safe when we attend Mass?

Parishes follow stringent cleaning protocols, and some still offer sections or Masses with distancing, mask requirements or other COVID-19 protocols. Find the latest liturgical protocols from the archdiocesan Office of Worship at archspm.org/liturgicalprotocols. Find a parish offering COVID-19 precautions by using the Advanced Search tool at archspm.org/locations.

If I've been worshipping from home for over a year, why should I go back now?

Since resuming public worship in May 2020, parishes have taken great care to ensure safety protocols are followed by staff, as well as Mass-goers. With the rise in percentage of the population vaccinated, cases are decreasing and we are starting to see the light at the end of the pandemic tunnel. For these reasons and more, Gov. Walz announced in Executive Order 21-21 that social distancing is no longer mandated indoors as of May 28, 2021, meaning parishes may now open at full capacity. Parishes stand ready and eager to welcome back the faithful for in-person worship.

Discernment Opportunity for Young Women

September 24-26 at Christ the King Retreat Center, Buffalo

We are pleased to announce that Fiat Ministries Discernment Retreat is coming to the Archdiocese of St. Paul and Minneapolis. Single women age 18-28 who are seeking to do God's will are invited to attend. Religious sisters from various orders assist at the retreat by giving talks, leading small groups, giving their testimonies, and providing a joyful witness of what it means to be a consecrated Religious Sister. The Fiat Discernment Retreat seeks to foster prayer, self-knowledge, and authentic discernment in young women to re-center their focus back on God and the universal call to holiness. The cost of the retreat is $100 which includes meals, lodging and materials. Registration and more information can be found at fiatministries.org.

Lecturas de Domingo
8th de Agosto de 2021
XIX Domingo ordinario

Primera lectura

1 Reyes 19, 4-8

En aquellos tiempos, caminó Elías por el desierto un día entero y finalmente se sentó bajo un árbol de retama, sintió deseos de morir y dijo: "Basta ya, Señor. Quitame la vida, pues yo no valgo más que mis padres". Después se recostó y se quedó dormido. Pero un ángel del Señor llegó a despertarlo y le dijo: "Levántate y come". Elías abrió los ojos y vio a su cabecera un pan cocido en las brasas y un jarro de agua. Después de comer y beber, se volvió a recostar y se durmió. Por segunda vez, el ángel del Señor lo despertó y le dijo: "Levántate y come, porque aún te queda un largo camino". Se levantó Elías. Comió y bebió. Y con la fuerza de aquel alimento, caminó cuarenta días y cuarenta noches hasta el Horeb, el monte de Dios.

Salmo Responsorial

Del Salmo 33

Segunda lectura

Ef 4, 30—5, 2

Hermanos: No le causen tristeza al Espíritu Santo, con el que Dios los ha marcado para el día de la liberación final. Destierran de ustedes la aspereza, la ira, la indignación, los insultos, la maledicencia y toda clase de maldad. Sean buenos y comprensivos, y perdónense los unos a los otros, como Dios los perdonó, por medio de Cristo. Imiten, pues, a Dios como hijos queridos. Vivan amando como Cristo, que nos amó y se entregó por nosotros, como ofrenda y víctima de fragancia agradable a Dios.

Evangelio

Jn 6, 41-51

En aquel tiempo, los judíos murmuraban contra Jesús, porque había dicho: "Yo soy el pan vivo que ha bajado del cielo", y decían: "¿No es éste, Jesús, el hijo de José? ¿Acaso no conocemos a su padre y a su madre? ¿Cómo nos dice ahora que ha bajado del cielo?"

Jesús les respondió: "No murmuren. Nadie puede venir a mí, si no lo atrae el Padre, que me ha enviado; y a ése yo lo resucitaré el último día. Está escrito en los profetas: Todos serán discípulos de Dios. Todo aquel que escucha al Padre y aprende de él, se acerca a mí. No es que alguien haya visto al Padre, fuera de aquel que procede de Dios. Ese sí ha visto al Padre.

Yo les aseguro: el que cree en mí, tiene vida eterna. Yo soy el pan de la vida. Sus padres comieron el maná en el desierto y sin embargo, murieron. Éste es el pan que ha bajado del cielo para que, quien lo coma, no muera. Yo soy el pan vivo que ha bajado del cielo; el que coma de este pan vivirá para siempre. Y el pan que yo les voy a dar es mi carne para que el mundo tenga vida".

Oración a San Miguel Arcángel

San Miguel Arcángel,
defiéndenos en la batalla.
Sea nuestra protección contra la maldad
y trampas del diablo.
Que Dios lo reprenda, oramos con humildad,
y tú, Príncipe de los ejércitos celestiales,
por el poder de Dios, arroja al infierno a Satanás,
y todos los espíritus malignos,
que merodean por el mundo buscando la ruina de las almas. Amén.
