We are not always aware of those who have this need. Please call the Parish Office to let us know if you or a member of your family would like to have Holy Communion brought to them. That way we can schedule a time for our ministers to visit and bring the Sacrament.

Prayer for the dead is a great act of charity that we can perform in the belief that our prayers are of assistance to the deceased. This is a treasured tenet of our ancient Christian faith. Our prayers help them during their time in Purgatory, so that they can enter more quickly into the fullness of heaven. At this time of year, therefore, we remember all who have died – saints in everlasting heaven and those souls in purgatory, awakening to the fullness of heaven. We pray for those who taught us goodness and virtue. We pray for those who prayed for us while they were in the world. We also pray for forgotten souls. We think of those holy souls in purgatory and we realize that they are ultimately saved. Now they wait, being purified, until they see God, face to face.

Prayer for the Deceased Person and for Mourners

Lord Jesus, our Redeemer, You willingly gave Yourself up to death so that all people might be saved and pass from death into a new life. Listen to our prayers; look with love on Your people who mourn and pray for their beloved dead. Lord Jesus, You alone are holy and compassionate; forgive our loved ones their sins.

By dying You opened the gates of life for those who believe in You; do not let Your brothers and sisters be parted from You, but by Your glorious power give them light, joy, and peace in heaven where You live forever and ever. Amen

Loving God and Our Neighbor

It is vitally necessary to keep God's commandments. They are the paths of life and they are intended to warn us of the paths of death. God is a friend of life. He does not desire our destruction and death, but that we should live. That is why it is so vitally important that we know his commandments and live in accordance with them.

In order that we may not fail to live up to them, God has inscribed his commandments in our hearts. God's Ten Commandments, the Decalogue, are not imposed upon us as if they are alien instructions, but rather we find them in our conscience, the most intimate voice of God in our hearts.

Jesus' reply to the scribe is so clear and logical that we can only wonder why it is that it is not so clear in life. The most important commandment is the first of the Ten. It sums them all up, and it alone makes it possible for us to fulfill the others. "Have no other God's besides me." We do not divide up our service by percentages where we say so much for God and so much for other people, and so much for other things. It must be 100 percent: loving God "with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind, and with all your strength." Everything must be entirely and unconditionally invested in loving God.

Then why is it often so little true in our lives? Why does God often come last in my life? Why do I turn to him only when all else has failed? Because we far too often set ourselves at the center of things instead of God. The First Commandment is the most important. This is the goal we want to reach if we want to have full, meaningful, and happy lives.

And how do we get there? Jesus says, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself." We are led to a greater love of God, day by day, by patiently following the pattern of loving our neighbor. By loving our neighbor, we learn to love with our whole heart and with all our strength, the One who stands behind our neighbor.

Father Tony

Prayer to Saint Michael the Archangel

Saint Michael the archangel, defend us in battle.

Be our protection against the wickedness
and snares of the Devil.

May God rebuke him, we humbly pray,
and do thou, O Prince of heavenly hosts,
by the power of God, cast into hell Satan,

and all the evil spirits,
who prowl about the world
seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

October 31st - All

Hallows Eve.

Happy
All Hallows
EVE!

All (every)
Hallows (holy saints)
Eve (night before)

All Hallows Eve was celebrated on the vigil night before All Saints Day (November 1st) and All Souls Day (November 2nd). Because these two days celebrate those who have died and are in Heaven and Purgatory, people would remember them with special traditions.

Trick-or-Treating

Visiting neighborhood homes asking for candy started as a way to pray for the dead. Beggars would go from door to door and promise to pray for deceased members of a family in exchange for some food or a treat.

Costumes

Traditionally, people would dress up in costumes on All Hallows Eve, usually like ghosts or demons, to make fun of evil because they know that Jesus Christ has won the battle over sin and death.

Decorations

It became a tradition to decorate with skulls and other symbols of death to remind us that we will all die and must rely on Christ for our salvation.

Panentheism: A Way of Seeing God's Presence in the World

Colossians 3:11 tells us "There is only Christ. He is everything and he is in everything." Panentheism views God as present in the universe yet more than the universe. It underlies Fr. Richard Rohr's "Universal Christ." It is also found in the writings of Muslim Sufi mystics, Celtic spirituality, and has recently found favor with many in the science and religion dialogue. What would a panentheistic God imply for our salvation, creation, and God's agency in the world? Thursday, November 11, presentation from 6:30-9:00pm, Saint Joseph the Worker, Maple Grove, MN. Mass, prayer, reflections, lunch, and time for questions and answers are included. FIESTA DE LA FE

La nueva alianza es Cristo mismo, el nuevo Israel es la Iglesia. Una vez más, Dios toma la iniciativa y se hace uno de nosotros, plenamente. La participación mutua de Dios no puede ser mayor, pues se hace uno de nosotros y habita entre nosotros. Las categorías se rompen totalmente, no hay deberes nuestros para con Cristo, hay respuesta a una invitación concreta: coman y beban, hagan esto en memoria mía. Jesús mismo instituye, en el contexto de una cena, una nueva alianza. Ya no se destrozará un animal y se pondrá su cuerpo en dos partes para pasar por en medio de ellos, siendo conscientes de que quien rompa esa alianza correrá la misma suerte. Cristo, al derramar su sangre, corta su propio cuerpo para sellar, mediante él, mediante su sangre, la nueva alianza. La noche antes de ser entregado, partió el pan y lo repartió diciendo que era su cuerpo; del mismo modo con el cáliz, sangre de la alianza nueva y eterna. Al beber su sangre nos hacemos uno con él, porque él ya se hizo uno con nosotros. La alianza no es en un animal sacrificado, sino en él mismo, que se hace cordero para el sacrificio. Lo imitamos en la medida en que nos damos a los demás.
