Communion for the Homebound: When we come together to pray at our Eucharistic liturgy, we do not forget the members of our community who are unable to be with us because of ill health. We remember them in our prayers, and we wish to include them in our Holy Communion. Members of our community bring the Blessed Sacrament to them to comfort them and to unite us in the Eucharist. We are not always aware of those who have this need. Please call the Parish Office to let us know if you or a member of your family would like to have Holy Communion brought to them. That way we can schedule a time for our ministers to visit and bring the Sacrament.

Hospital, Nursing Home, Homebound Visits: Churches are no longer notified by hospitals or nursing homes when a parishioner is admitted unless the family has requested it. If you or a family member are homebound, hospitalized or in a nursing home and would like a visit from a member of the ministry staff, please call the Parish Office.

THEY KNOW HIS VOICE

This fourth Sunday in the season of Easter is called “Good Shepherd Sunday”. Various passages are read from the tenth chapter of the gospel of John on this Sunday in which Jesus speaks of himself as the Good Shepherd. He had warned his hearers against the false shepherds, the hirelings who are thinking only of their own profit and are indifferent to the welfare of the flock.

How can the flock know who is the good shepherd and who is the bad one? The sheep would follow a shepherd’s voice, but not that of a stranger, and Jesus’ hearers knew this. The sound of a shepherd’s voice was one that the sheep could trust. What was Jesus trying to say through this parable? He knows me better than I know myself. He knows me through and through. He knows me as a shepherd knows his sheep and he knows what I need, and wants to lead me to good pastures. “I give you eternal life”, says Jesus. And just as a good shepherd fights for his sheep against predators, Jesus declares energetically, “They shall never perish, and no one shall snatch them out of my hand.”

Have no fear that God is all-knowing! It is inseparable from his mercy. It is comforting to know that nothing is hidden from him in that he does not condemn us. Yet, there are voices that condemn and criticize and we often find fault with one another. There is always a fly in his ointment and we also say to ourselves, “You ought to have done that differently!” Self-criticism can also drive us mad.

Yet here is a voice that sounds different. It does not condemn, nor does it butter me up. It tells me the truth and yet it is full of love and kindness. It is the voice of the Good Shepherd. It can speak to me in my heart through the scriptures. Distinguishing this voice from other voices is of vital importance as he is leading me along a good path. I can trust this voice completely. It is leading me along the path to life.

God bless you all!

Father Tony

ELLOS CONOCEN SU VOZ

Este cuarto domingo del tiempo de Pascua se llama “Domingo del Buen Pastor”. En este domingo se leen varios pasajes del capítulo décimo del evangelio de Juan en los que Jesús habla de sí mismo como el Buen Pastor. Había advertido a sus oyentes contra los falsos pastores, los mercenarios que sólo piensan en su propio beneficio y son indiferentes al bienestar del rebaño. ¿Cómo puede saber el rebaño quién es el buen pastor y quién el malo? Las ovejas seguirían la voz de un pastor, pero no la de un extraño, y los oyentes de Jesús lo sabían. El sonido de la voz de un pastor era uno en el que las ovejas podían confiar. ¿Qué estaba tratando de decir Jesús a través de esta parábola? Él me conoce mejor que yo mismo. Él me conoce de cabo a rabo. Él me conoce como un pastor conoce a sus ovejas y sabe lo que necesito, y quiere llevarme a buenos pastos. “Yo os doy la vida eterna”, dice Jesús. Y así como un buen pastor lucha por sus ovejas contra los depredadores, Jesús declara enérgicamente: “No perecerán jamás, ni nadie las arrebatará de mi mano”. ¡No temas que Dios es omnisciente! Es inseparable de su misericordia. Es reconfortante saber que nada se le oculta en que no nos condena. Sin embargo, hay voces que condenan y critican y, a menudo, nos criticamos unos a otros. Siempre hay una mosca en su unguento y también nos decimos a nosotros mismos: “¡Deberías haberlo hecho de otra manera!” La autocrítica también puede volvernos locos. Sin embargo, aquí hay una voz que suena diferente. No me condena, ni me endulza. Me dice la verdad y, sin embargo, está lleno de amor y bondad. Es la voz del Buen Pastor. Puede hablarme en mi corazón a través de las escrituras. Distinguir esta voz de otras voces es de vital importancia ya que me está conduciendo por un buen camino. Puedo confiar completamente en esta voz. Me lleva por el camino de la vida.

¡Dios los bendiga a todos!
