Mass Intentions: Mass intentions may be for the living and/or the departed, with a † designating in the bulletin a deceased person. There is a $10 suggested donation per Mass intention. Permission from the sick person or his/her family must be granted before a name's inclusion in these prayers. To schedule a Mass intention, call the Parish Office.

Baptism: Our Baptism Belonging Class is required for all parents as a first step to Baptism of your child. Please call Father Tony VanderLoop, Pastor, at 952-679-9415 to sign up for a class. We encourage Godparents to attend. Baptisms are scheduled once per month after the 10:00 a.m. Sunday Mass. Special dates requested for Baptism will be considered and accommodated depending on circumstances.

Reconciliation: Saturdays at GA from 8:00 - 8:45 a.m. and 3:15 - 4:15 p.m. or by appt.

Matrimony: Marriage preparation is required. Please call Father Tony VanderLoop, Pastor, at 952-679-9415 at least 8 months in advance.

Anointing: If you wish to receive an anointing please call the Parish Office: (952) 227-4000.

Communion for the Homebound: When we come together to pray at our Eucharistic liturgy, we do not forget the members of our community who are unable to be with us because of ill health. We remember them in our prayers, and we wish to include them in our Holy Communion. Members of our community bring the Blessed Sacrament to them to comfort them and to unite us in the Eucharist. We are not always aware of those who have this need. Please call the Parish Office to let us know if you or a member of your family would like to have Holy Communion brought to them. That way we can schedule a time for our ministers to visit and bring the Sacrament.

Hospital, Nursing Home, Homebound Visits: Churches are no longer notified by hospitals or nursing homes when a parishioner is admitted unless the family has requested it. If you or a family member are homebound, hospitalized or in a nursing home and would like a visit from a member of the ministry staff, please call the Parish Office.

FINANCIAL CORNER

Today's readings speak of hospitality. Abraham, who cheerfully did for his guests all that desert hospitality required, was rewarded with his heart's desire – a son. Martha also busied herself with all the details of hospitality, but grudgingly and with complaint. Am I a cheerful or grudging giver?

DON'T LET THE BETTER PART BE TAKEN FROM YOU

Martha and Mary, the two sisters, stand for two different attitudes, two approaches to life. Martha, the sister of Mary, is the hostess. She is the enterprising one, the active sister. She welcomes Jesus into her house, offering him rest after his travel, a stopping place on his journey to Jerusalem. She sees to his comfort. From the few words Luke uses to describe the scene, we can imagine that she is industriously and somewhat hastily busy looking after her guest.

It is different with Mary. She sits down by Jesus at his feet. She listens to him. She has time entirely for him and is full of interest in him. Martha has welcomed Jesus into her home, but Mary welcomes him into her heart. She makes him a gift, not of her activity, but of her attention.

But is not the praise that Jesus gives her unjust? If Martha just sat there like Mary, then who would take care of the meal? Who would set the table? It is all very well to listen, but work will not wait, and the table will not set itself full of food and drink. Martha's annoyance with her sister is only too understandable. But Jesus appeals to her saying in essence, "You are taking a great deal of trouble, but you are in danger of forgetting the most essential thing. What is all the trouble and anxiety if, in the middle of it all, you have no longer any time for me? What use is your hospitality if you are wearing yourself out and we can no longer talk to each other at all?"

We need the confidence to look into this mirror that Jesus provides us and to see where in our lives we suffer from this kind of "activism" that is so prevalent and such a great danger in our age. Something always has to be happening, from one event to another – even on vacation. Time is squeezed in for everything and only time for God runs short.

Jesus points to Martha's sister, Mary, saying, "Mary has chosen the better part." Seeing things and taking the trouble are not bad, but they should not swallow everything up. It is necessary to be active, but it stands in need of contemplation, of reflection and prayer as a sound basis. Such people do exist: extremely active and yet not hectically busy, ready to help and at the same time ready to listen. They give enough time to God; they listen to his word; they draw strength and peace from prayer. Perhaps in this month of July and often time for vacations we can refocus our lives, so that like Mary, we can listen to Jesus in all tranquility.

NO DEJES QUE TE QUITEN LA MEJOR PARTE

Marta y María, las dos hermanas, representan dos actitudes diferentes, dos enfoques de la vida. Marta, la hermana de María, es la anfitriona. Es la emprendedora, la hermana activa. Acoge a Jesús en su casa, ofreciéndole descanso después de su viaje, una parada en su camino a Jerusalén. Ella vela por su comodidad. A partir de las pocas palabras que usa Luke para describir la escena, podemos imaginar que ella está muy ocupada y algo apresurada cuidando a su invitado. Es diferente con María. Se sienta junto a Jesús a sus pies. Ella lo escucha. Ella tiene tiempo completamente para él y está llena de interés en él. Marta ha acogido a Jesús en su casa, pero María lo acoge en su corazón. Ella le hace un regalo, no de su actividad, sino de su atención. ¿Pero no es injusta la alabanza que Jesús le da? Si Marta se sentara allí como María, ¿quién se encargaría de la comida? ¿Quién pondría la mesa? Está muy bien escuchar, pero el trabajo no esperará y la mesa no se llenará de comida y bebida. La molestia de Martha con su hermana es muy comprensible. Pero Jesús apela a ella diciendo en esencia: "Te estás esforzando mucho, pero corres el peligro de olvidar lo más esencial. ¿Cuál es el problema y la ansiedad si, en medio de todo, ya no tienes tiempo para mí? ¿De qué sirve tu hospitalidad si te estás desgastando y ya no podemos hablarnos? Necesitamos la confianza para mirarnos en este espejo que Jesús nos proporciona y ver en qué parte de nuestra vida sufrimos por este tipo de "activismo" que es tan frecuente y un peligro tan grande en nuestra época. Siempre tiene que estar pasando algo, de un evento a otro, incluso durante las vacaciones. El tiempo se aprieta para todo y sólo el tiempo para Dios se agota. Jesús señala a la hermana de Marta, María, y dice: "María ha escogido la mejor parte". Ver cosas y tomarse la molestia no es malo, pero no deben tragárselo todo. Es necesario ser activo, pero necesita como base sólida la contemplación, la reflexión y la oración. Tales personas existen: extremadamente activas y, sin embargo, no frenéticamente ocupadas, listas para ayudar y al mismo tiempo listas para escuchar. Le dan suficiente tiempo a Dios; escuchan su palabra; sacan fuerza y paz de la oración. Quizás en este mes de julio y muchas veces de vacaciones podamos reenfocar nuestra vida, para que como María, podamos escuchar a Jesús con toda tranquilidad.
