We remember them in our prayers, and we wish to include them in our Holy Communion. Members of our community bring the Blessed Sacrament to them to comfort them and to unite us in the Eucharist. We are not always aware of those who have this need. Please call the Parish Office to let us know if you or a member of your family would like to have Holy Communion brought to them. Then we can schedule a time for our ministers to visit and bring the Sacrament.

Please remember the Church of the Guardian Angels or Saint Nicholas in your Will.

On Thursday, June 29th, we celebrate the Feast of Saints Peter and Paul, Apostles. This is also a solemnity, which is the most significant feast the Catholic Church can establish.

Saints Peter and Paul are considered the foundational pillars of the Church.

Peter represents the stability of the Church and the office of the Vicar of Christ. Matthew's Gospel relates that Jesus changed Simon's name to Peter when He said to him, "I say to you, you are Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church, and the gates of the netherworld shall not prevail against it. I will give you the keys to the kingdom of heaven..." (Matthew 16:18).

With his new name and unique spiritual authority in which he held the "keys to the kingdom of heaven," Peter emerged as the central leader of the Church after Pentecost. As the Church's first theologian, which is seen in his numerous letters that expound on the Gospels, Paul represents the mission of evangelization that was entrusted to the Church by Jesus Himself.

As we honor these two pillars of the Church, recall the fact that, though they are great saints, they were also ordinary men called to extraordinary vocations. They responded and God used them in ways they could have never imagined.

Ponder your own calling in light of theirs and resolve to lay your life down for the Church, joining yourself to these two men so that God can continue their holy mission through you. Saints Peter and Paul, once Christ called you, you responded with total abandonment to His holy will. Through you, the Church was founded and began to grow. Please pray for me, that I will fully devote myself to the ongoing mission of the Church, so that God can use me according to His holy will. Saints Peter and Paul, pray for me. Jesus, I trust in You.

Saint Peter: Patron Saint of bakers, masons, brickmakers, bridge-builders, fishermen, harvesters, netmakers, the papacy, and the Universal Church.

Saint Paul: Patron Saint of evangelists, theologians, musicians, writers, tentmakers; Cursillo movement; and Catholic Action.

GUESS WHO'S COMING TO DINNER

Guess Who's Coming to Dinner is a fun way for parishioners to meet, in groups of 6-8 people, in a relaxed, informal atmosphere over dinner and conversation. It is for all parishioners, new, old, married, or single, ages 21 and up.

Designed to promote and strengthen our parish community by providing an opportunity to get to know those familiar faces we see each week at Mass and at parish events. Hosts and guests will be randomly selected for each dinner, so we can all meet more people.

The next dinner is July 22nd, 6:30—8:30 p.m. Please contact Laurie Forner at (612) 201-7002 or lforner2@gmail.com if you have questions or would like to participate as a host or as a guest. If you participated in the past, please note you can attend as often as you wish.

ATTENTION: ADVERTISE ON THE BULLETIN!

Gina Shaughnessy, our parish representative from LPI, is setting up the advertising for our bulletin for the year. We hope that parishioners who have a business will consider sponsoring an ad on the back of the bulletin, since the revenue from the ads is what makes the bulletin possible, at no cost to the parish. Also, if you know of any other businesses in the community that would like to support the parish, please let them know about this opportunity. Advertisements can be purchased for a business, family, or a sponsorship ad can be purchased supporting community service organizations such as emergency pregnancy counseling, the local food shelf, etc. Please give these ideas some thought. We need and appreciate your help!

If you are interested in getting more information, please call Gina Shaughnessy at (952) 356-6488.
