LECTIO DIVINA—MATTHEW 14:22-23— PETER WALKS ON WATER

Dear Parishioners of Guardian Angels and Saint Nicholas,

I have decided to make the theme passage for our discernment of what God wants us to do in our future Matthew 14: 22-33, when Peter walks on water toward Jesus. On October 4th, come to our Encounter Faith Formation in the Saint Francis Hall when I will guide us in a meditation on this passage as we learn how to do lectio divina together. God so badly wants to give us signs of His love, but one of those signs is already given to us and lasts forever. It is Jesus Himself, The Word Made Flesh. He is the Word Himself found in the holy scriptures that center around Him and lead to Him. So a preeminent way of receiving the signs of God is lectio divina, which means divine reading. When we bring our life to Jesus, our works, joys, sufferings, requests, and challenges and recognize that he died for us and accompanies us on the journey, we become aware of his desire to teach us something, to speak to us quietly, to refine us, to purge us, and to enlighten us with new belief or resolve about something. We are ready to see His love in such teaching. Therefore, it is good to always have a bible or a passage of scripture ready whenever you make a holy hour.

In this bulletin article, I borrow substantially from Mark P. Shea's, "How to Make a Holy Hour" from the Our Sunday Visitor pamphlet. It is located at the kiosk in back of church at Guardian Angels. Be sure to pick up one!

Lectio divina consists of four parts that may be compared to stages of growth and harvest of grapes in a vineyard. In the Lectio portion, you toil in the "vineyard," growing and harvesting the "grapes" by reading a passage of scripture (the daily Mass readings, for example). Pay special attention to each word and look for the connections between the sentences you are reading. Look for phrases that stand out to you. Read the passage again. Perhaps it is the waves, or being "tossed about" that causes you to think about what the storm must have been like. Or Peter saying, "Lord, if it is you, command me to come to you on the water." Did he have faith? Did he have the beginnings of faith? Did he have a kind of initial zeal?

Then this naturally moves us to Meditatio. In this portion, you work at squeezing the "grapes" for all the "juice" you can wring from them. One way to begin meditating on scripture is to choose just a few words or a phrase and begin committing it to memory by repeating the words over and over. As you do, you will tend to notice the words, their connections, their connotations, and their deeper meanings. When Jesus said to Peter, "Come," what was the nature of his love for Peter or His emotions for Peter at that time?

The next phase is Oratio. In Oratio, you "ferment the juice" and let it age into "fine wine" by pondering God's word in your heart as Mary did and talk the scriptures over with God. Ask God questions as you wrestle with the words and their meaning. Try to discover the depths of meaning that God put there. How did Peter initially be able to walk on the water toward Jesus during the storm? Why did he sink? We can contemplate images also. What headwinds and rain in his face might Peter have experienced as he (presumably) focused his eyes on Jesus. Expect God to give you insight into both the scripture and its application to your life. Although this insight may not come immediately during your holy hour, remember to be open to His answer.

Finally, there is Contemplatio. The fruit of your labors with the "grapes" now yields "wine." As God reveals Himself to us through the Scriptures, we begin to see that the truth of God is not merely a collection of facts, but the gift of a Lover to His beloved. This moves us to both gratitude and obedience. Indeed, we discover that our gratitude is meaningless without obedience. So we are moved from receiving the love of God to a new resolve to respond to it. Maybe it could be the confidence of Jesus stretching out his hand to save us. Maybe like Peter we must cry out, "Lord, save me!" Or maybe we could ask our Lord to give us the faith to complete the walk to Him.

Come this Wednesday! I look forward to it with you.

Father Tony

JOIN US FOR DINNER!

Guess Who's Coming to Dinner

Guess Who's Coming to Dinner is for all parishioners, new, old, married, or single, ages 21 and up. It is designed to promote and strengthen our parish community by providing an opportunity to get to know those familiar faces we see each week at Mass and at parish events.

If you sign up as a guest participant, you will be assigned to attend a dinner with one of our parishioner hosts in their home. Last year was our first year and everyone had a great time meeting new people, laughing with old friends, and enjoying a variety of dinners with the hosts. Special considerations and assignments will be made if you have allergies to food or pets or if you have mobility concerns. And, if you need a ride, we have volunteers for that too! We don't want you to miss out on the fun!

If you sign up as a host, your meal can be simple or formal; potluck, buffet, or family style—you need only provide the main dish and beverages. Guests may be asked to bring a dish to share or you can host the whole meal. It is up to you!

I am looking for Hosts and Guests for our next dinner even on Saturday, October 28th, 2023, 6:30 p.m. Won't you join us?

Please contact Laurie Forner at (612) 201-7002 or lforner2@gmail.com if you have questions or would like to participate as a host or as a guest. If you participated in the past, please note you can attend as often as you wish and you do not have to host to participate.

Take a moment each day to say the following prayer and add the Memorare Prayer: "That the life of every person, from conception to natural death, will be protected in our laws and cherished in our hearts."

(Project Rachel: 651-291-4515)

The Memorare Prayer

Remember, most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help or sought thy intercession, was left unaided. Inspired by this confidence, we fly unto thee, O Virgin of virgins my Mother; to thee do we come, before thee we stand, sinful and sorrowful; O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not our petitions, but in thy mercy hear and answer them. Amen.
