Marriage preparation is required. Please call Father Tony VanderLoop, Pastor, at 952-679-9415 at least 8 months in advance.

Communion for the Homebound:

When we come together to pray at our Eucharistic liturgy, we do not forget the members of our community who are unable to be with us because of ill health. We remember them in our prayers, and we wish to include them in our Holy Communion. Members of our community bring the Blessed Sacrament to them to comfort them and to unite us in the Eucharist. We are not always aware of those who have this need. Please call the Parish Office to let us know if you or a member of your family would like to have Holy Communion brought to them. Then we can schedule a time for our ministers to visit and bring the Sacrament.

PARISH EVANGELIZATION CELLS SYSTEM—A NEW KIND OF SMALL GROUP

In chapter two of Sherry Weddell's Forming Intentional Disciples, titled "We Don't Know What Normal Is," Weddell makes the case that "normal" Catholicism should include dimensions of Christian life that are often considered extraordinary today. Number six in her "It is Normal" list reads, "It is NORMAL for lay Catholics to have the fellowship of other committed lay Catholics available to them, to encourage, nurture, and discern as they attempt to follow Jesus" (p. 60). Small groups are a proven approach to providing and living out such fellowship. However, it is uncommon for Catholics to live this way. Our archbishop desires that small groups would become an ordinary part of parish life.

By now, you are probably asking about the practicals. What will these groups look like? What will we do? What will we study? First, before I get to the answers to these very good questions, let me say that PECS are "cells" that are meant to multiply. They are essentially missionary communities that empower its members to live the Great Commission by inviting others into the life of the Cell through a very prayerful and intentional pathway.

There will be seven moments of a cell meeting in an hour and a half of time. The first will be Song and Prayer of Praise. This time of praise frees us from the fatigue of the day, places Jesus at the center, opens us to the love of God and of our sisters and brothers, invokes the gift of the Holy Spirit to guide us, to educate us, and to make us docile to his teachings, and inspires peace and forgiveness. You may feel a little apprehension about signing together. However, joy and enthusiasm are more important than a beautiful voice. We let God do the rest. We will provide some resources here.

The second is personal sharing for about 20 minutes. One of the great moments of a Cell meeting is when the members share about God's presence and activity in their lives. This focuses on two questions: What has God done for me this week? What did I do for God this past week? These personal testimonies are a gift that each one gives to the others and are a way to be attentive to the daily expression of God's love in our lives.

The third is teaching of the pastor or other teaching for about 15-20 minutes. The teaching could be, through video or sound recording, another way for the pastor to be present to his people. The teachings are aimed at helping all present, at different levels of spiritual maturity, to grow in understanding of the Gospel and the teachings of the Church, as well as to stimulate spiritual growth. This step is linked to the next one, which aims to apply one's concrete experiences and personal life to the life-giving Word of God.

The fourth moment is the discussion and application of the teaching. The leader facilitates the discussion in such a way so as to ensure that conversation remains on topic so that members can seek to integrate the teaching and apply the word of God in their daily lives. It is a time of reciprocal growth as the reflection of one member edifies the other.

The fifth moment is announcements. What would a Catholic group be without announcements? But, more seriously, this moment helps to establish the Cell as a fundamental part of parish life, as important happenings are communicated by an Executive Cell Team. It is through this communication that the Cell is integrated with the life of the parish and, thus, the Archdiocese.

The sixth moment is intercession. The praise, sharing and meditation on the Word proposed by the teaching all lead us to intercede. In the Cell, we intercede, above all, so that evangelization is truly "new" among those whom we know, in our parish, and in the Church. For example, we pray for those whom members know whom they are hoping to bring closer to Jesus.

The seventh moment is healing prayer. The leader might invite those who are in need of special prayer to make that need known with confidence. It is a very special time of affirmation for those in the Cell who are feeling the stresses of life. They should be able to go away knowing that they are loved and supported by God and their brothers and sisters. It is not obligatory to offer a healing prayer at each Cell meeting. But it may be requested or the leader may perceive quite clearly that it is needed.

May God bless these moments that we will have with each other. "For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them" (Matthew 18:20).

PIANO IN NEED OF NEW HOME

For decades, the piano in the gym has provided memories for many parishioners. From school concerts to piano lessons it has been a cherished item at our parish. Today, the piano is now looking for a retirement home. It is starting to show its age in scratches, dents, and significant chips, but still has the same heart on the inside. This piano would be best for someone who likes restoring old pianos or someone who would like a piano who doesn't mind doing a little bit of work.

Free to a parishioner or loving home. Pickup only.

CUT-OUT ON ADVERTIZING PAGE

Some of you may have noticed that there is a new "ad" on the back page. It is not actually an ad, but a cut-out that you may use to show appreciation. Whenever you patronize a business on the back of the bulletin, you may cut out the "Thank You" box and present it. This shows the business owners that they made good use of their advertising budget by advertising in our bulletin.

LETTER FROM FATHER TONY

Advent greetings and blessings,

As we prepare for Christmas and reflect on the humble arrival of the Child Jesus some 2000 years ago, we also prepare our hearts for when He returns in glory. I invite you as Christmas approaches, at the end of each day to simply reflect back on the day and write two or three things that you are grateful for in which God moved in your life that day. Then, say a short prayer of Thanksgiving. One of the best ways we can prepare our hearts for the coming of the Lord is by celebrating Mass. Here, we truly experience the coming of the Lord when He is present in his Word and He sustains us in the Eucharist.

I look forward to celebrating Mass with you and your loved ones this rest of Advent and Christmas! This year, with priests being able to celebrate a limit of three Masses on one calendar Sunday, and with retired and other priests busy on Sunday, December 24th, our Mass schedule for the Fourth Sunday of Advent will be quite different. Here is how it will look:

- Saturday, December 23rd at 4:30 PM at Guardian Angels
- Sunday, December 24th at 9:00 AM at Guardian Angels, Bilingual (Live-Streamed)
- Sunday, December 24th at 10:00 AM at Saint Nicholas

As you can see, we will only have one Sunday morning Mass at Guardian Angels. Therefore, let's fill the church! This is your opportunity! Then, our Christmas Mass schedule will be:

- Sunday, December 24th at 4:00 PM at Guardian Angels
- Sunday, December 24th at 10:00 PM at Guardian Angels
- Monday, December 25th at 9:00 AM at Guardian Angels (No incense)
- Monday, December 25th at 10:00 AM at Saint Nicholas
- Monday, December 25th at 11:00 AM at Guardian Angels, Bilingual

I am grateful for your generosity in supporting our parishes both in prayer and financially so that together we can make the name of Jesus Christ known and loved! Our parish staff members strive daily to be dutiful stewards, but we need your support to continue this mission. Each year, we rely heavily on the Christmas collection and year-end giving for this purpose. Please prayerfully consider, in addition to your current giving, offering a Christmas sacrifice to support our parish community. At Guardian Angels, on the back information desk, please be sure to pick up our flyer on how to give electronically. It is quite simple, actually.

Thank you for joining our parish community in prayer, fellowship and stewardship during this hopeful and joyous season. May God bless you and your loved ones this Advent – and beyond – as we together prepare our hearts for the coming of our Savior.

In Christ,

Father Tony VanderLoop
Pastor
