THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

Then he took a cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them, and they all drank from it. He said to them, "This is my blood of the covenant, which will be shed for many. Amen, I say to you, I shall not drink again the fruit of the vine until the day when I drink it new in the kingdom of God."

Communion for the Homebound:

When we come together to pray at our Eucharistic liturgy, we do not forget the members of our community who are unable to be with us because of ill health. We remember them in our prayers, and we wish to include them in our Holy Communion. Members of our community bring the Blessed Sacrament to them to comfort them and to unite us in the Eucharist. We are not always aware of those who have this need. Please call the Parish Office to let us know if you or a member of your family would like to have Holy Communion brought to them. Then we can schedule a time for our ministers to visit and bring the Sacrament.

EUCHARISTIC ADORATION—OUR LORD ABIDES WITH US!

Today is a beautiful day! We have our Eucharistic procession in which we bring our Lord Jesus out into our community and we celebrate our oneness in Him together. The Church has always encouraged Eucharistic processions on Corpus Christi Sunday. In Medieval times anyone passing by would immediately genuflect and make the sign of the cross. We would love for those days to return! Yet as we think further, we realize that God chooses us to be Christ-bearers to the world in which we live today.

One way in which we grow in our personal relationship with our Lord Jesus is through Eucharistic Adoration. We just had 13 men ordained to the priesthood for our archdiocese on May 25th. May God bless them in their ministry and I welcome them to the priestly fraternity. We are brothers in the Lord! This event causes me to reflect on how it was that I came to priesthood. I remember spending time in a Eucharistic chapel as many days as I could before I entered the seminary and what a great grace that was. For me, it was a time to reflect on the events of my life with our Lord and ask him, “Are you really calling me to be a priest?” The answer didn’t come so much through a direct lightning bolt-experience, but was revealed to me gradually.

It seems like nothing happens at Eucharistic Adoration. Sometimes we have communal prayer, singing and incense, but at the heart of it, there is silence in front of a monstrance with a host. The lack of movement can sometimes make us feel uncertain or uncomfortable, yet our Lord is there in stillness, abiding with us.

So how do we make this prayer count? How do we do it right? We might be very used to activity and the hustle and bustle of life, so much so, that the preoccupation with so many things gets in the way of adoring the Lord. We may be concerned with what to do in adoration, but our Lord is only waiting, resting, and abiding with us. He did not come to dazzle us or overwhelm us with his power, but rather he humbles himself to come to us by the sign of a piece of bread in order that we may receive Him into our bodies. So he beckons us to become still and silent ourselves and to wait, rest, and abide with Him.

Part of what is challenging in this is to let ourselves be present to Him and to be seen by Him as we really are. We find new life in this. For example, in Mark 10:21 Jesus looked upon the rich man and loved him. The rich young man came to Jesus searching for an answer to the question, “Good teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?” Jesus knew what this man needed and had to tell him something very challenging, namely to go and sell what he had and come follow Him. But it is with a look of love that Jesus tells him a hard and necessary truth.

I look forward to the day with you all. It will be so nice to get together as brothers and sisters in the Lord! Thank you to all who have made this day possible with all of your efforts in our procession and picnic. May God bless our Corpus Christi Sunday together!

Father Tony

DO YOU HAVE NEWS?

Attention parishioners at Saint Nicholas!

If your ministry is hosting an event, feel free to email the details to bulletin@gachaska.org to get your ad into the bulletin!

The editor has been informed that Saint Nicholas events don't get mentioned in the bulletin and she thinks that's a crying shame!

Please send the information BEFORE the event happens in order to get the word out.

Throughout the late 20th century and into more recent times, there have been many stories of Chinese Catholic heroism and Chinese priests, bishops, and laypeople who have been martyred at hands of anti-Catholic government officials. Many of these stories are associated with the Communist takeover of China under Mao Zedong but also include those persecuted for their faith during the Boxer Rebellion and even the 1911 Revolution.

Among the stories birthed by the long history of Catholic persecution in China, one legend often stands out among the whole of these unnamed Martyrs. That story is the legend of Little Li, the Child Martyr of the Eucharist.

Recounted by many different retellings throughout the years, the gist of her legend is this — Little Li was a Catholic child in China who was about 10 years old and had recently received her First Communion. One day, soldiers broke into her parish, imprisoned the pastor, and desecrated the Eucharist by throwing it on the floor. They guarded the church night and day to keep people from worshiping at the site. Little Li, seeing that there were over 30 consecrated Hosts on the ground, decided to sneak into the church every evening and pray in adoration before picking up one of the pieces from the floor with her tongue and consuming it.

Li continued to do this, unnoticed by the soldiers, until almost all the pieces had been consumed. Upon her final trip into the church to consume the last Host, she was discovered by the guard and killed.

Her story of martyrdom stands to remind us of all the Catholics in China who have been martyred for their faith and of those who are still unable to worship publicly today without fear of persecution. Unnamed Martyrs of Chinese Persecution, pray for us!

CATHOLIC YOUNG ADULTS: THE MUSICAL

Thursday, June 20th-Sunday, June 29th, St. Agnes School (Helene Houle Auditorium), St. Paul, Tickets available at missedtheboattheatre.com

At Catholic Beer Night, the CYAs hear a rumor that St. Stephen's is closing! Can they rally together to find a way amidst the chaos of their own dating novenas, come-and-sees, and lust for Latin to beat the odds and do what no one ever expected a band of young adults to do... save the parish? Fr. Kyle Kowalczyk's new musical distills the essence of Catholic young adult subculture in an uncomfortably accurate, unexpectedly poignant, and reverently hilarious brew.
