26TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

At that time, John said to Jesus, "Teacher, we saw someone driving out demons in your name, and we tried to prevent him because he does not follow us." Jesus replied, "Do not prevent him. There is no one who performs a mighty deed in my name who can at the same time speak ill of me." - Mk 9:38-39

We are not always aware of those who have this need. Please call the Parish Office to let us know if you or a member of your family would like to have Holy Communion brought to them. Then we can schedule a time for our ministers to visit and bring the Sacrament.

DOES THE CHURCH TELL ME WHOM TO VOTE FOR?

As the election nears, this question may be on many of your minds. The answer is that the Church does not tell us whom to vote for or, for that matter, that we should join this party or that party. However, this in no way exempts us from using our judgment to apply the teachings of our Lord, Jesus Christ and our core faith values to the choices we make in the voting booth. As Catholics, following the challenging path to discipleship, we need to evaluate the issues and candidates in light of our Catholic faith. Then, we are challenged in our civic duty to get actively involved, by voting and engaging in other civic activities.

These days, we have a temptation, it seems to me, to get the “real news” from this source or that source and make moral judgments based on what is said from that source. But these sources often play to a clientele and the truth, or the perspective on that truth, is very much slanted. The candidates themselves, of course, stretch the truth because they know that it creates emotion which drives voting choices.

We must choose a different path. We must maintain a willingness and openness to seek what is right through studying Scripture and Catholic teaching by using our reason to study key issues in light of this teaching, and by prayerfully seeking to understand the will of God. This is how we form our consciences for faithful citizenship. As we do so, we form the virtue of prudence that enables us to discern true good in what is often complex circumstances and to choose the right means of achieving it. To do so, we must, first of all, understand the basic principles of our Catholic social teaching.

Did you know that there are seven basic principles of Catholic Social Teaching? They are:

Life and Dignity of the human person.

Call to Family, Community, and Participation.

Rights and Responsibilities.

Option for the Poor and Vulnerable.

Dignity of Work and Rights of Workers.

Solidarity.

Care for God’s Creation.

As I stated in my last article, the dignity of the human person is the foundation for a moral vision of society. This principle is the foundation for Catholic social teaching and comes from the inherent gift that all humans were “made in the image and likeness of God.” The respect and sanctity of all humans requires that human life be valued and protected from conception to natural death, based on who they are, not ever dependent on what they do. We believe that every person is precious, that people are more important than things, and that the measure of every institution is whether it threatens or enhances the life and dignity of the human person. Life is to be treated as precious and valid regardless of the circumstances surrounding the individual. Christ loved us first, and we are called to be that love to others and share the message of dignifying life. We must put this message to action that gives a bright witness to the sacredness of human life.

I will write about the other principles of Catholic social teaching in future articles.

THINKING ABOUT BECOMING A CATHOLIC?

Do you know of someone who is thinking about becoming a Catholic? Please invite them to come to Guardian Angels!

Do you have a desire to learn more about the Gospel and the teachings of the Catholic Church?

Do you have a desire to know and love God more?

Have you (or a family member or friend) considered becoming Catholic?

We invite you to join OCIA (Order of Christian Initiation of Adults).

Through OCIA, the Church invites you to learn more about its rich traditions and deep roots as the family of God. At Guardian Angels, we invite you to join our Encounter group that meets on Wednesday evenings from 6:30 to 7:45 p.m. The Encounter Group involves parents of children and youth in faith formation and other parishioners who want to learn more about their faith. We have a large group presentation with small group prayer and reflection that we believe you will enjoy.

Additionally, we will celebrate the rites of the Catholic Church that allow you to become Catholic and/or celebrate the Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, or First Eucharist.

Call or email Father Tony VanderLoop at frtonyvanderloop@gachaska.org or (952) 679-9415. Or, contact Deacon John Cleveland at jcleveland@gachaska.org

Saturday, October 26th at 10:00 a.m.
