2ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

There was a wedding at Cana in Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there.
Jesus and his disciples were also invited to the wedding.
When the wine ran short, the mother of Jesus said to him,
"They have no wine."

Communion for the Homebound:

When we come together to pray at our Eucharistic liturgy, we do not forget the members of our community who are unable to be with us because of ill health. We remember them in our prayers, and we wish to include them in our Holy Communion. Members of our community bring the Blessed Sacrament to them to comfort them and to unite us in the Eucharist. We are not always aware of those who have this need. Please call the Parish Office to let us know if you or a member of your family would like to have Holy Communion brought to them. Then we can schedule a time for our ministers to visit and bring the Sacrament.

STEWARDSHIP UPDATE

In today's second reading, St. Paul tells the Corinthians (and us) that all of our gifts are from God and that they are given, not for ourselves alone, but for the common good. But the generosity of God knows no limits—the miracle at Cana reminds us that whenever we faithfully do as God asks, He can change our gifts of water into wine!

PRAY FOR OUR PRESIDENT AND OUR COUNTRY

I have always found this time of year to be a time of greater civic awareness with so many important and significant events coming up. We will have Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.'s birthday as a holiday. We will have the March for Life in Washington, DC. And we will inaugurate our new president. Please pray for our president, for our elected and civic officials, and for our country. No matter what your political leanings are, it is always good and important to pray for our national, local, and world leaders. What greater good can we do in our political engagement than to commend all who are in positions of authority to the God of grace? We do this simply because we are able to do so.

It is undoubtedly true that we have certain feelings about our political leaders and we may even wonder what God is up to as we see their imperfections. However, Saint Paul says to the Romans (13:1), "Let every person be subordinate to the higher authorities, for there is no authority except from God, and those that exist have been established by God." So we trust in God knowing that they face unique and demanding pressures even though they are still human. We should pray for them in the task they face, that they'd have the wisdom and strength to govern us wisely and effectively.

At the same time, our call is a call not only to prayer, but to action. But even before we take action, we must humbly do our best to properly form our consciences as we navigate our way through a complex world with complex issues. Just because they are complex does not mean that we should submit to a kind of paralysis and throw up our hands and say, "I can't do anything." We humbly accept that what we do is perhaps small, but can make a difference that someone benefits from and moves us closer to a just world.

What do we mean by forming consciences? All of us are deeply obligated to form our consciences of what is just and right. Our own reasoning is naturally good, but is also enlightened by the teaching of Christ which is best put into current context by our Catholic Church. The Church does not tell us who to vote for, but the Church is indeed the place where our consciences are formed in terms of the gospel teachings of Christ applied to our world today and how our participation can make them become a reality in our world today. The document, "Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship: A Call to Political Responsibility," calls us to responsible citizenship through participation in political life. It speaks of this as a moral obligation. I invite you to read the summary of the recently revised version from the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops.

In navigating our way through the issues of our time, we realize that a Catholic moral framework does not easily fit the ideologies of "right" and "left" nor the platforms of any party. Our values are often not "politically correct." So we ask how we can best promote a culture of life and seek to build it. "Living the Gospel of Life" uses the image of the person as the "Temple of the Holy Spirit" – the living house of God to help us weigh the issues. While we would consider issues of poverty, employment, and education as located at the crossbeams of the house, we would consider the protection of life itself at the foundation. Therefore, direct attacks on human life such as abortion and euthanasia strike at the very foundation of the house.

Come and speak up for life. Get on the bus that leaves from Chanhassen to come to what our bishops have made a day of prayer. The bus leaves for the Cathedral this Wednesday at 9:30 AM. After prayer at the Cathedral and the rally at the state capitol, the bus will return around 2:00 PM. Flyers with RSVP info. are located in the back of church. May we always live and speak the Gospel of Life.

TAKE OUR PRESCHOOL SURVEY

We have exciting news! Early survey results show strong interest in a Guardian Angels Catholic Preschool and we're thrilled about the possibility of opening our doors this autumn. This would be a wonderful opportunity to nurture young hearts and minds in a faith-filled environment that fosters spiritual growth, academic readiness, and a love for learning. While we are eager to move forward, enrollment is not yet open. We understand that many preschools are currently accepting applications, and we encourage families to secure a spot elsewhere if needed. However, we sincerely hope you'll consider joining the Guardian Angels Preschool family when the opportunity arises.

To make this dream a reality, Guardian Angels needs your help! A short survey has been developed to gather input from our parish and community. Your participation is vital—it will help us understand the level of interest, the needs of local families, and how we can best serve our children.

Please take a moment to complete the survey and share it with other families in the community. Together, we can shape a preschool that reflects our shared values and vision for the future.

Please keep us in your prayers as we work toward making this vision a reality and stay tuned for updates on enrollment. We can't wait to welcome your little ones!

ST. BENEDICT AND HOSPITALITY

Our history at Guardian Angels started with the Benedictines who lived by the Rules of St. Benedict. One theme in his Rules is hospitality. He says, "Let all guests that come be received like Christ Himself, for He will say, 'I was hungry and you gave Me food, I was thirsty and you gave Me drink, I was a stranger and you took Me in.'"

We enjoy serving our guests and parishioners at Guardian Angels after Masses each Sunday. Our menu includes juice, coffee, tea, donuts, fruit, bagels and cream cheese, and some gluten free treats as well. Please consider joining us and signing up to serve. It is a great way to be hospitable to our neighbor, to meet new people, or catch up with old friends. Individuals, families, and each of our ministry groups are welcome and encouraged to provide hospitality. We will order the supplies and provide easy directions for those who would like to assist. Call or text Laurie Forner at (612) 201-7002 to sign up for Sundays in December.

CANTORS FOR MASS

Have you ever thought about becoming a cantor? We are looking for new cantors for both Guardian Angels and Saint Nicholas. You will get trained in on how to lead the congregation in joyful praise to the Lord!

MASS INTENTIONS

The Mass Intentions Calendar for 2025 is open! To schedule a mass intention, come to the Parish Office, call, email, or write us a letter (including your phone number). Intention donations are $10.

Beginning Sunday March 2nd, our new Sunday morning Mass schedule will be:

- 7:30 AM Mass in English at Saint Nicholas
- 9:00 AM Mass in English at Guardian Angels
- 12:00 PM Mass in Spanish at Guardian Angels

Our Archbishop has responded to our strategic plan. He stated in his recent letter to Father Tony that he was pleased with 3 aspects of the plan:

1. The plan envisions going out to evangelize our neighbors. Pope Francis often reminds us that we cannot thrive, or even survive, as a Church that only looks inward. We must find ways to successfully welcome those who are new to the area.
2. Leaders from Guardian Angels and Saint Nicholas collaborated in this planning effort. As we bring the good news of Jesus to our neighbors, we must work together, building upon the strengths of each parish. This is very true for us who have limited financial and staff resources.
3. The plan proposes a reasonable Mass schedule that can be fulfilled by one priest.

Archbishop Hebda looks forward to receiving an extensive update by October 31st, 2025 as to how our progress has unfolded and he assures us of his prayers. The work that we do together in these coming months will surely be of critical importance in growing Jesus' Church in Chaska and Carver. Thank you for your efforts!
