EASTER SUNDAY

The women who had come from Galilee with Jesus took the spices they had prepared and went to the tomb. They found the stone rolled away from the tomb; but when they entered, they did not find the body of the Lord Jesus. - Lk 24:1b-3

WHO WILL ROLL BACK THE STONE?

Imagine what it would have been like to be the women, Peter, or John in the gospel story. They could not possibly have anticipated what happened. They had spent so much time with their Master and Teacher whom they loved. They had found great hope in he who brought healing and showed them how to live. But now they wanted to put closure on what had been an exciting time in their lives. Anointing his dead body was to be a last loving gesture. It was the least that they could do. When have we felt like that, only to anticipate a large stone in front of us? When have we felt that something important to us was taken away?

Jesus really was dead and crucified and there really was finality to it – or so it seemed. But God raised Jesus from the dead! God has broken into the tragic human drama and reversed what had seemed like the inevitable. God has broken into our human experience of moving on to the next exciting thing that grabs our attention and has charted a course for us that will last forever.

Peter, who must have felt like a failure, heard the Good News that Jesus was raised and saw it for himself. The other disciple whom Jesus loved ran with him and saw and believed. They received new life and new reason for hope in seeing as the women did!

We celebrate Easter, yes, but we really celebrate it when we prayerfully come before Him to face our tombs like the women did at Mass and in our personal prayers. We come to see it for ourselves like Peter and John when we come to Mass and take part in receiving the great and living memorial of his sacrifice – His body and blood, given up for us. We see it for ourselves when we desire the truth of His holy Word that we hear at Mass and in our personal prayer. Then our daily lives can change with a real knowledge that He is alive wherever we go and in whatever situations we face. Place your trust in He who is risen for us, the one who has conquered death will pull us up and into the fullness of life. Make time in your life for the one who is alive! Have a great Easter and God bless you all!

Father Tony

STATEMENT REGARDING ATTACK OF FATHER NEIL BAKKER

From Archbishop Bernard A. Hebda, April 11th, 2025

I was shocked to hear of the attack on Father Neil Bakker, pastor at St. John the Baptist in Jordan, inside the parish rectory early Tuesday morning. Father Bakker and I have been in contact, and I have reiterated to him the promise of my prayers and Archdiocesan staff support for him and his parish and school community now and in the coming days and weeks. We need to give thanks to our gracious God that the incident ended as peacefully as it did. I continue to be inspired by the pastoral way in which Father Bakker was able to de-escalate a frightening situation.

My gratitude also extends to the women and men of the Jordan Police Department and the Scott County Sheriff's Office. I am told they rushed to Father's aide, quickly arrested the suspected attacker, and have taken great care of Father since the incident. Their professionalism and compassion are appreciated by all.

I ask at this time that all people of good will join me in prayer both for Father Bakker and for the person who broke into his rectory. Please join me in praying as well for all those who are victims of violence.
